St. James's, March 8.

THE following Addreſſes from the Two Houſes of Parliament in Ireland have been tranſmitted hither by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, out of a grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy by your wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration at home, and the proſperous Succeſs of Your Armies abroad, humbly beg Leave to declare our Deteſtation of the Pernicious Deſigns which have lately been carried on in Scotland by Emiſſaries from France, to diſturb the Happineſs of Your Glorious Reign.

And we aſſure Your Majeſty, That we will at all times uſe our utmoſt Care to prevent, and our moſt hearty Endeavours to defeat, all Traiterous Conſpiracies againſt Your Majeſty, and to defend Your Royal Perſon and Government, and maintain the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line, as limited by Law, againſt all Oppoſers.

And ſince Your Majeſty has been pleaſed to expreſs a juſt Concern for the Preſervation of the Monarchy, and a zealous Regard to the Welfare of the Eſtabliſhed Church; we further declare our unanimous Reſolution of aſſiſting Your Majeſty in tranſmitting them ſecurely ſettled to all Poſterity, being fully perſwaded, that as the one is the moſt happy Form of Government, ſo the other is the beſt conſtituted Church in the World.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate Your Majeſty upon the happy Diſcovery of the late Pernicious Practices carried on in Scotland by the Emiſſaries of France againſt Your Majeſty's Government, and the Peace of Your Kingdoms.

We lie under ſo high Obligations to Your Majeſty, and are ſo much intereſted in the Preſervation of Your Royal Perſon and Government, that we ſhould be wanting to our ſelves, if on this, and all other Occaſions, we ſhould not expreſs our utter Abhorrence of all Plots and Conſpiracies againſt a Queen ſo gracious, and ſo juſtly entituled to the Love of Her Subjects. And we humbly beſeech Your Majeſty to accept our moſt ſincere Aſſurance, That we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, aſſiſt and ſupport Your Majeſty and Your Government againſt all Your open and ſecret Enemies, maintain the Succeſſion of the Crown as ſettled in the Proteſtant Line, and the Church of Ireland as by Law Eſtabliſhed.

Conſtantinople, January 8. N. S. On the 30th of October laſt, the Janizar Aga, Chelic Achmet Baſhaw, to whom, among other Marks of Favour, the Grand Signior had done the extraordinary Honour of accepting an Entertainment at his Houſe ſome days before, was, together with the late Boſtangi Bachi, and the Kihaya, Bey of the Janizaries, his Friends and Adherents, ſent away upon a Galley into Exile. This Diſgrace was very ſudden and unexpected, and is imputed to his too eager Purſuit of the Office of Grand Vizier, his inſolent Behaviour, and his preſumptuous aſſuming of too great an Authority, relying upon his Credit and Intereſt among the Soldiery, and the Support of thoſe who were concerned in the late Revolt: But the Court had the Dexterity to turn his own Arms againſt himſelf, taking the Advantage of ſome Wrongs he was found to have done the Janizaries. The Government has ſince fined him in a conſiderable Sum of Money; and Mehemet Chelibi Aga has ſucceeded him in the Command of Janizar Aga. The 2d of November, the firſt Publick Divan was held in the Seraglio, at which time an Ambaſſador from the Yusbeck Tartars was admitted to an Audience of the Grand Signior; and upon the ſame occaſion the Janizaries, Topigi's and Gebegi's, had their Pay diſtributed to them, which paſſed without any Diſturbance or Signs of Diſcontent. Thereupon 3 days after the Grand Vizier Azem Achmet Baſhaw, whoſe Parts and Capacity were very unequal to ſo great an Office, was depoſed, and baniſhed to Nicomedia, now called Iſmit, having been forced to refund 300 Purſes of the Money he had gotten ſince his Advancement, and Haſſan Baſhaw, the Recab Caimacan, who has married the Grand Signior's Siſter, was made Grand Vizier in his room, who made an end of paying the Soldiery, diſtributing to the Spahi's what was due to them: His Promotion, which is undoubtedly owing to the Sultana Cartigi, his Wife, and to the Valida Sultana, the Grand Signior's Mother, was a Surprize to every one; an Opinion having generally prevailed, that his Sultana was unwilling to expoſe him to the Danger of that high Station, which otherwiſe ſhe might have ſooner procured for him. Many other Changes have ſince happened in the Miniſtry, and the moſt powerful of thoſe that were the Authors or Promoters of the late Revolution are removed from their Employments; which being attributed to the Valida's Management, gives occaſion to many to believe, that when Matters are ſettled according to the Grand Signior's Deſire, ſhe will prevail with him to return with the Court to Adrianople. In November a Diſcovery was made of Practices carried on by the Inſtigation of the late Janizar Aga's Friends, in order to excite a ſecond Revolt; but the Court had the good Fortune to prevent it in time, by baniſhing the Spahilar Agaſi, the late Janizar Aga's Kihaya, and moſt of the Commanders of thoſe Forces which the Malecontents had got together, in order to bring about the late Revolution. Others of the Accomplices are fled, and ſtrict Enquiry is making after them. There are arrived in this Port 7 Turkiſh Men of War from the Mediterranean and the Archipelago, ſome of them from Alexandria, whence they have brought the Haſnah or Treaſure of Egypt, amounting to about 500000 Dollars in Money, beſides Rice, Coffee, and other Goods for the uſe of the Seraglio. Three other Men of War are to remain in the Seraglio till ſuch time as they are relieved by 5 which are fitting out in the Arſenal of this Place, for the Winter Service. The late depoſed Sultan Muſtafa is dead of a Dropſie. About a fortnight ago an Envoy from the Grand Signior to the Emperor parted hence, with above 80 Perſons in his Retinue, for Vienna.

Lisbon, Febr. 23. The Panther Man of War arrived at Caſcais the 21ſt paſt, with the Prince of Heſſe Darmſtad and his Family on board, who came on ſhore the next day. On the 12th Inſtant arrived here a ſmall Tranſport Ship, with a Company of Colonel Brudenell's Regiment; and on the 16th came in another, with a Company of my Lord Mountjoy's: The Officers and Soldiers of theſe two Companies are now all on ſhore, and are quartered at Belem, in the Governor's Houſe. The 16th died the Infanta Donna Thereſa, eldeſt Daughter to the King of Portugal, who was about 8 years old, and her Loſs is ſo very much lamented, that all publick Marks of Sorrow are ordered to be given, in the ſame manner as if ſhe had been of Age; and the Court will go into cloſe Mourning upon this Occaſion. The Infanta Donna Franciſca, who is now the King's only Daughter, has alſo the Small Pox, but, as is believed, without any Danger. Our laſt Let-
